Smallpox Epidemic Needed To Step Up Vaccinations-M.O.H.

How To Avoid And Fight
Disease Explained By
DR. WESLEY

DISCUSSES "T.B."

(The following talk on communicable disease was given by Dr. J. H. Wesley, Newmarket M.O.H., at Sharon on Monday before a Red Cross home-nursing group, and all except the portion on tuberculosis before a similar Newmarket group last Wednesday.)

This Home Nursing Class is a grand, good idea. When I was a boy, we never heard of nurses out in the country. When a fellow got sick, it was up to his mother or sisters, if they were big enough, to take care of him. When the family all got tired out sitting up all night and working all the next day, the neighbors took turns and came in week after week, nursed the one that was sick until he was better or until the funeral was over.

Later, speaking of conditions in our home community, the York county hospital was organized, and with it another very worthy project was started, "The Nursing School" in connection with the hospital. This work was carried on for quite a number of years, and today we have a number of graduates in our surrounding country, graduates from our own hospital, doing a

WILL HOLD REGULAR MEETING ON MARCH 19

The Newmarket Home and School Association will hold its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, March 19, in the Stuart Scott school at 8 p.m.

grand work both in the intelligent raising of their own family, or giving advice and assistance to their neighbors in time of accident or affliction.

Personally, I look on the passing of the nursing schools in these smaller hospitals as a matter of regret.

A disease is an abnormality from health, and, as you naturally expect, there are at least 500 different diseases, of which at least 69 are communicable, infectious, or, as we sometimes say, "catching."

So far as "HOME NURSING" is concerned we do not give a hoot about all these 69 different diseases. All we are here for today is to talk about the communicable everyday kind that we have to deal with, to study

WON'T FINISH SO GAME GOES TO DAVIS LEATHER

HOT SESSION BETWEEN TAN-
NERS AND SPECIALTY
ENDS IN DISPUTE

PLAY TONIGHT

By GEORGE HASKETT, JR.

The Davis Leather team snatched the second game of the mercantile finals by a 2-0 count from their old factory rivals, the Office Specialty, last Thursday night at the local arena. This was positively the hottest jam session of the season, both clubs laying it on with a will, and the largest crowd of the year turned out to witness it. The game opened with both clubs playing cautiously and clinging closely to their checks. The north enders took over the lead at the 18-minute mark of the opening chapter, "Handy Andy" Mitchell bagging the shot on a pass-out from "Shorty" Wrightman.

The second period saw things start to happen with a vengeance. "Hoosier" Hughes and "Arch" Bennett were leading the green-shirted crew's attack and missed several grand opportunities to bulge the twine, but just fell short of their mark. About midway through, Walt Groves and "Abbie" Evans got into a tangle which soon developed into a battle royal. When matters were finally straightened out, W. Groves and Smart for the tanners, Hughes and Barker for the cabinet makers, were found sitting out the next two minutes.

The third session continued with both squads threatening the rival citadels, and also with hostilities threatening to break out again at any time. With eight minutes left the lid really blew off, after "Sonny" Townsley bagged a shot from the wing. The office squad protested to high heaven that two of the leather makers were vacationing in the Specialty goal crease, and from our point of view and from the majority of the fans' they really had something to squawk about on this point. However, when ordered to continue with the game by the referee, they refused and the referee awarded the game to the tanners. As the referee was taking his leave from the ice one of the over-anxious spectators let go with a hook and the battle was on again, only this time the spectators were the chief sufferers.

The entire team of both squads earned the whole-hearted plaudits of the entire house in their battling display, with the rival netminders, Smith and Kaus, being showered with plenty of shots and both turning in all star performances.

Line-up: Davis Leather, goal, A. Smith; def., J. Peat, R. Smart; centre, B. Groves; wings, W. Groves, P. Townsley; alt., W. Townsley, M. Stickwood, A. Wrightman, A. Mitchell, S. Townsley.

Office Specialty: goal, P. Kaus; def., A. Barker, K. Woodcock; centre, Stan. Evans; wings, Ab. Evans, G. Crowder; alt., A. Bennett, R. Hughes, J. O'Halloran, E. O'Halloran.

Referees: D. May, A. Mathewson.

The two big factory squads, Office Specialty and Davis Leather, will be gunning for each other's scalps in the mercantile finals at the local arena tonight at 7.30 p.m. Don't miss tonight's swing and slay session.

"At Length He Did Incline, My Voice And Cry To Hear"

VOICE RETURNS AFTER LONG WAIT TO TRINITY
PASTOR

Remarkable improvement in the voice of Rev. R. R. McMath, pastor of Trinity United church, who lost his voice as the result of an operation shortly before he came to Newmarket, took place last week. Mr. McMath was suffering from a cold at the time his voice returned.

Mr. McMath attributed the great improvement to "the prayers of God's people." He told how he had "felt the urge" the previous Sunday to use, and had used the 40th psalm: "I waited for the Lord my God and patiently did bear; At length to me he did incline: My voice and cry to hear."

As Mr. McMath was under a doctor's orders to speak for only ten minutes, George D. Wark took charge of the service and John Scott gave the scripture reading on Sunday morning.

CHANGE IN HANDLING INSURANCE SUGGESTED

Two hundred and thirty-eight pupils are voluntarily contributing ten cents a month to an accident fund at the high school. Principal J. B. Bastedo reported to the high school board on Friday afternoon.

Those present were the chairman, Fred Chantler, A. N. Belugin, R. L. Buag, Dr. L. W. Dales, W. J. Geer, Gordon L. Manning, Rev. Dr. W. D. Muecke, and W. J. Patterson.

The finance committee recommended that the board should carry an accident policy in favor of the students, who might contribute to the cost if they wished.

Dr. L. W. Dales, as chairman of the finance committee, presented a survey of the board's insurance made by a Toronto firm of insurance brokers. This firm offered to handle the board's insurance and pay commission to local agents. The same firm handles the town's insurance in the same way.

The report stated that certain economies could be effected in the insurance. The board did not seem to favor this new method of handling its insurance and no action was taken.

It was left to the finance committee to meet with the finance committee of the town council to discuss the board's request for $12,515 towards its operating expenses.

On the motion of Mr. Patterson and Mr. Geer, the secretary was requested to request the town engineer to advise the Canadian Underwriters' association that there are two hydrants within 300 feet of high school property, entitling the board to a lower fire insurance rate, and also to have the burglary insurance increased from $750 to $1,000, as there would be no difference in the premium.

The board authorized borrowing up to $10,000 from the Bank of Montreal.

Not informed of the meeting until after it was due to start, the press was not represented.

LIONS DENTAL WORK PRAISED BY LECTURER

FOOD FOR TEETH STRESSED
BY DENTAL HYGIENE
COUNCIL MAN

"SEE YOUR DENTIST"

The death rate from tuberculosis has declined 65 per cent in Canada in the last 30 years as a result of educational work, Dr. Harry Thompson of the Canadian Dental Hygiene Council told the Lions club on Monday evening.

"Tuberculosis can be cured if there is early diagnosis," said Dr. Thompson. "We can't kill the tubercle bacillus, but we have learned to raise the health of the body to the point where the tubercle bacillus can't multiply itself."

"Of all who entered mental hospitals last year 35 per cent were cured," was another statement he made in illustration of the accomplishments of modern science.

Dr. Thompson said he had learned of the great amount of dental work done by the club and said that it could not be measured in dollars and cents.

"The diseased tooth leads to disease in the rest of the body. A tooth that has been filled is not a diseased tooth. A diseased tooth is one in which decay has proceeded to the point where what you call the nerve is exposed."

"It is really an artery and a nerve. The dentist calls it the pulp. When it becomes exposed, infection sets in, and the pulp swells up and cuts off the circulation and the nerve is killed. The tooth is dead. The infection is carried through the body and attacks a weak spot, resulting in arthritis or some other ailment."

"There can be no disease in the tooth as long as the crown is sound. We must provide the food to keep those teeth sound. The crown is completely formed at eight years of age. But the food that was needed to build those teeth is needed to keep them sound."

"The crowns of the first teeth begin to form at the third prenatal month. The crowns of the second teeth that come at six or seven years begin to form at the eighth pre-natal month."

"Calcium and phosphorus are the minerals lacking in our diet that our teeth need."

"They are to be found in fruits, raw and cooked, and vegetables, raw and cooked."

"Only three Eskimos in a hundred have tooth decay. Only one Maori in a hundred in New Zealand have tooth decay."

"Then we must brush our teeth. Eskimos and Maoris don't have to brush their teeth because they don't eat carbohydrates. We finish our meals with carbohydrates."

"Early diagnosis is the only cure for a decayed tooth. Go to the dentist early."

"Syl Apps and Gordon Drillon have 32 teeth in their mouths."

"Keep on with your dental clinic," Dr. Thompson advised the Lions.

Dr. Thompson was introduced by Dr. E. A. Grant, director of dental services, city health department, Toronto.

LARGE CROWD HEARS VISITING MUSICIANS

By E. M.

Last Sunday evening in the town hall, the Barrie Municipal band, as guests of the Newmarket Citizens' band, 30 strong, made a very favorable impression on the vast audience filling the hall, who braved the cold in order to hear good music, rendered as it should be.

In our opinion, "Selections from H.M.S. Pinafore," the quartet and the vocal solos by Handsman A. Bath were the highlights of the evening, but we must not fail to mention the "Beer Barrel Polka," which drew round after round of applause.

The chairman, Rev. A. J. Patstone, gave the life history of the Barrie band, and we learned from his remarks that the band were without the services of some of their first chair men, through sickness.

After the concert, lunch was served in the band hall, and some 30 bandmen, their wives and sweethearts, we believe thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

J. O. Little thanked the members of the Barrie band for paying Newmarket this visit and wished them every success.

Mayor Would Cut Board's Requisition Down By $2,500

CHAIRMAN CHANTLER
WOULD INCREASE IT
By $1,500

COMMITTEES MEET

High school finances formed the subject of a conference between the finance committees of the high school board and the town council on Tuesday afternoon.

The high school board had requisitioned $12,500 as compared with $9,000 last year, in addition to debenture payments.

Mayor Dr. S. J. Boyd offered to give the board $1,000 increase instead of the $3,500 asked.

Members of the board said that the increase was more to cover declining revenues from other sources than for increased costs. Members of the council did not agree to the board's requisition, but indications were that the board would stand its ground.

Members of the board took strong objection to remarks made at the last town council meeting. They stated that a person with a $3,000 assessment last year paid $21 for high school costs, and in spite of a cost of $107 per pupil, such a person with one child at school paid only $21. The same taxpayer would pay only $21 for four pupils in spite of a cost of $428, board members stated. Board members said that the operating costs of the school had gone down from 1930 to 1939 from $30,843 to $27,532, in spite of an increase in pupil-days of from 25,348 to 30,472.

WED FIFTY YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Monkman celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Tuesday at their farm on the second concession of Whitechurch township, where they have made their home for the past 40 years. Present on the happy occasion were Mrs. A. Danbrook of Toronto, nine children, 20 grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

Although the town, as a result of legislative changes, is now paying more toward the maintenance costs of the school, debenture payments by the town had declined from 1930 to 1940 from $13,259 to $7,975, members of the board said, and in six years all high school debentures would be paid off.

In addition to the $12,500, Fred Chantler, chairman of the high school board, cited other necessary, in his opinion, expenditures amounting to $1,515. These included $200 on the tennis court, $850 on the heating system, $200 on painting window frames, and other smaller items.

School Demands On Child's Time Too Heavy - Doctor

PRE-NATAL CARE BROADLY INTERPRETED BY SPEAKER

Pre-natal care begins not with the expectant mother but with the children of today who will be parents tomorrow, Dr. J. C. R. Edwards, Newmarket physician and surgeon, told the Red Cross home-nursing class in the R.S.A. bugle band hall last evening.

"The main thing in pre-natal care is the rearing of a healthy generation of men and women to be parents," said Dr. Edwards. "Other problems will take care of themselves."

"To become healthy, physically, mentally, morally, children need sensible, sane guidance, balanced activity, lots of good food, healthy clothing, healthy recreation, good education."

"Healthy recreation, however, is impossible to obtain today with education demanding too much of the child's time."

Dr. Edwards divided the child's life into infancy and puberty, and spoke of the latter as a time of expansion, in personality, character and body, and stressed the need for special care during this time of preparation for parenthood.

Life Was Vale Of Woe, But Bore It All With Smile

TROUBLE-FILLED LIFE ENDS
AFTER LONG ILLNESS

A woman who had had her full share of sorrow and trouble, Mrs. Albert Edward ("Ber") Green died on Sunday after six months illness.

Her four children, by her first marriage, died early in life, the oldest at time of death living to complete a teacher's training and serving for only a few months on a high school staff, her first husband died suddenly of heart failure, two brothers died violent deaths, and in the ten years since she married for the second time and came to live in Newmarket she suffered two bad accidents and her husband two.

Mrs. Green a few years ago fell down the cellar stairs and seriously injured her neck. More recently she fell and broke her ankle. Mr. Green in the last couple of years had had two accidents, being pinned to a building by a truck and falling off a ladder, on both occasions while pursuing his trade as a painter.

Sarah Ann Brown, daughter of Richard and Ann Brown, was born at Aspataria, Cumberland, England, in 1875, and came to Canada with her parents when six weeks old.

The family settled in Manchester, Reach township, Ontario county, where she grew up.

In 1898 she married J. H. Pentland, and they lived in western Canada. They were in Edmonton at the time of her husband's sudden death.

In 1930 she married Mr. Green and came to Newmarket to live. A members of St. Paul's Anglican

ELECTION NOTES

Britain and France may be declaring war on Russia one of these days—while Canada's parliament is not. It strikes us that Prime Minister William Lyon Mackenzie King may find himself in an embarrassing position. He will have to decide whether Canada is to declare war too, or whether Canada is to wait until there is a parliament to make the decision. He will be on the horns of an uncomfortable dilemma.

"Dreadful Sorry, Mr. King"

Mr. King will not be entitled to any sympathy, first, because he will not be able to say that parliament was dissolved by agreement of all the parties in the house, and, second, because we know he will be able to wriggle out of the dilemma in his usual statesmanlike style.

Forget it, Dr. Manion

Dr. Manion is making a lot of talk about the King government's refusal to permit establishing of United Kingdom flying schools or bases in Canada a couple of years ago. Mr. King is busy denying the charges. There is no need for the charges, and no need for the denials. What was done a couple of years ago has little bearing on the conduct of the war or the present election, in our opinion.

You Were Right, Mr. King

Dr. Manion can talk all he likes but he can't convince us that Mr. King's decision wasn't a wise one at that time or that even a Manion government would have had popular approval for the establishment of United Kingdom air training schools in Canada in time of peace. Mr. King can talk all he likes but he can't convince us that he did not do just what Dr. Manion says he did. He shouldn't be ashamed of what he did. If he denies doing everything that Dr. Manion says he did, he will have to admit, alternatively, that his was, until war broke out, a do-nothing government. Come, come, Mr. King, take credit for the few things you did do.

Looks Like A Lot To Us

Conservative charges that the King government isn't pushing the war hard enough are not borne out by the statement of Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of transport, speaking in Newmarket last week, that Canada is spending $500,000,000 in the first year of the war. This is a tremendous sum when it is considered that Canada's total debt, including the first great war expenditure and the guaranteed debt of the C.N.R., is (or was) only about eight times that amount. The government must be doing something with all that money.

Shades of the C. I. O.

If we may take the Hepburn investigation of the St. Thomas flying school "walk-out" as authoritative, the denials made by Hon. Norman Rogers do not reflect credit on the King government. Mr. Hepburn hasn't made any particular contribution to the public welfare, however, by bringing the St. Thomas mutiny to public attention, for, after all, a boy is a natural mutineer and striker, as parents know, and the St. Thomas boys probably did not need any public sympathy. Why Mr. Hepburn should be the sympathizer, we don't know, for he was cast in the role of a strike-breaker in his last provincial election, and he was then blaming the federal government for withholding police help. We will continue to hope that Mr. Rogers did not know the facts, or that Mr. Hepburn's investigators have made a mistake, for we find it hard to believe that a fine gentleman like the minister of national defence would be untruthful. Hepburn forthrightness is often mischievous but it is always refreshing against the usual political background.

Still A Toss-up

There is no sign yet as to whether the King government is losing its precarious foothold in parliament (Liberals received less than half the votes cast in the last election), or whether the Manion party is making any headway with its national government program. We noticed that Dr. Manion was talking "adequate protection" in an Oshawa speech. Has he learned nothing? If there is one thing that the King government must be given credit for, in its pre-war years, it is its good neighbor policy of moderating tariffs. Tariffs and guns aren't very different.

from the cabinet on Monday and declared his intention of supporting Mackenzie King in the election. He broke with Hepburn because he was "completely at variance with your recent policy, statements and acts." On Tuesday he withdrew his resignation.

A probe instigated by Premier Hepburn, when he charged that there was a violent disturbance at St. Thomas in February when air students marched into the city, was not substantiated in the findings of Commissioner W. H. Stringer, who conducted the investigation. He found that 200 or 300 men of the training school marched into St. Thomas without leave, but did not inquire into the causes of the walk-out, he reported to Attorney-General Conant.

The British expeditionary force has been doubled since October and there are now not less than 316,000 troops across the channel, Oliver Stanley, war secretary, has announced.

FORCED LANDING IS MADE ON SIMCOE ICE

The Women's Association of the United church had a very outstanding supper and concert on the afternoon and evening of March 7. The tables were tastefully decorated with St. Patrick's green and flowering plants. The menu included nearly everything from soup to pie. Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Oldham and Mrs. Kenneth McKinnon were the supper convenors. The helpers were Mrs. Jud Cole, Mrs. Merve Connell, Mrs. Gable, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. George White, Mrs. Arthur Pedlar, Mrs. Fred Peel, Mrs. Davison, Miss Joy Marritt, Miss Helen Smith, Mrs. Gordon Harper, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Ethel Morton and Miss Jean Peters.

In the afternoon meeting the members of the Women's Association voted a sum of money to help with the current expenses of the church. At night, after a short devotional service, at which Rev. C. E. Fockler presided and Miss Margaret Fockler was pianist, Mr. Davison was chairman for a most enjoyable concert. Mrs. Ethel Morton gave a well executed instrumental and Mrs. Oldham a very enjoyable reading. Mrs. Jud Cole read poems of Edgar Guest which all enjoyed. Mrs. Ernest Morton sang two solos and gave a short reading in an effective manner.

The duet by Miss Betty Fisher and Miss Betty Morton was especially appreciated. The girls knew their song well and acted it delightfully. Miss Emma Young gave a very humorous reading about hats. Mr. Kenneth Boothby sang, "Let us have peace," a song inspired by a recent message of the pope. Master Lorne Mainprize gave a reading very efficiently.

At the evening service of the United church, as well as at the weekly prayer services, the new Canadian Youth Hymnals are being used. These hymnals contain many beautiful new hymns as well as the old favorites.

The Young People's Society of the United church had a good meeting on Monday night. Her-ald Pollock led the meeting. Miss Margaret Fockler gave a splendid talk on "India." Mrs. Vail's Sunday-school class of young people which has been disbanded for some years, attended and voted a sum of money that they had left in their treasury to be used for the Sunday school.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union of Keswick and vicinity will hold a meeting on the afternoon of Thursday, March 21, at the home of Miss Joy Marritt. Mrs. C. E. Fockler will give a talk on "Temperance."

Mrs. Sheppard and Miss Ruby Sheppard spent Sunday in Keswick. They have been living out of town during the winter.

Miss Kathleen Peel is working

Mrs. John Harper spent a few days in Toronto last week.

On Tuesday afternoon the women of the Red Cross branch packed boxes for soldiers. They also had a sewing meeting.

An army aeroplane bomber made a forced landing last Saturday on the ice of Cook's Bay in front of Mr. Pedlar's home. It took off on Monday afternoon at the Western Hospital, Toronto.

Mr. Charles Willoughby, who has been seriously ill again, is recovering.

The executive of the Red Cross wants everyone to save their waste paper, magazines, etc. This will be gathered up to provide funds for the Red Cross.

Mr. Earl Morton, who is enlisted with the Canadian army, is on leave and spent Monday in town.

His overseas experience during the Great War speaks volumes for his service to his country. His employment with the C.N.R. colonization service in London, England, as a representative of the Civil Service of Canada, has given him an insight into governmental administration. His service in the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church has been such that he has been recalled to his first and early charges. He served in Edmonton, at Aurora and in Truro, N. S. He is a man with high, ennobling ideals, who is offering his services as candidate for the National Government.

STATEMENTS CONSCRIPTION

He states that he is definitely opposed to conscription and is in perfect accord with the position taken by his leader, the Hon. Dr. Manion. This is a most important statement and one in which there is no equivocation.

POLICE COURT SAVED HIS CLOTHES BUT PAID IN COURT

When Magistrate W. F. Woodliffe fined Fred Fritz Brunl, R.R. 3, Newmarket, $5 and costs in police court on Tuesday, Brunl claimed that the snow and mud made it necessary for him to park his car near the middle of a four-way highway, in the township of King, on Feb. 20, in order to fix a tire.

He stated that that was a good place to stand the jack. Moreover, he was less likely to soil his good clothes.

Constable Alex. Ferguson testified that the accused could have found other and less dangerous places to park.

"How long have you been driving?" asked the magistrate.

"Eight years," was the reply.

When the accused said that he was unable to pay the fine, he was given two weeks in which to do so.

Crown Attorney N. L. Mathews, K. C., then read a letter in which William Lewin, James Prendergast and William Lyons, all of Toronto, pleaded guilty to a charge of hunting without a license in Whitchurch township on Feb. 18. Constable Prosser testified that he received a telephone call from Game Warden Adams, who had heard the shooting.

Franklin H. Barlett, Old Yonge St., was fined $10 and costs for speeding.

Constable Kenneth Mount testified that on Feb. 26 at 9:35 p.m. Almer N. Coles failed to stop at the intersection of Main and Water Sts. He stated that the car was going west at about 30 miles an hour. This he said was a stop street. Magistrate Woodliffe fined accused $1 or two days in jail.

Mr. Mathews asked that the case of David Williams of Aurora, a charge of driving without a license, be suspended for one week.

It was charged by Constable Carl Morton that on or about Nov. 12, 1939, Roy Phillips of Bolton stole a purse containing $13 in cash, a windbreaker, and a sweater from Mervin Connell of Keswick. Accused pleaded guilty.

Constable Morton testified that when the Connell family returned from church Phillips had left and these articles were missing. Constables Morton and Wm. Hill investigated.

Constable Hill, of York county police, then stated that on Thursday last week he was notified that Phillips was seen wearing the windbreaker, which was exhibited. This article Connell identified as belonging to him.

Mr. Mathews asked if the other articles were recovered yet, but they had not been. Constable Hill had difficulty in finding the accused, as Phillips had gone under the assumed name of Leslie Treadwell.

Accused claimed that a friend of his had persuaded him to steal the articles.

"Where is the sweater?" asked Mr. Mathews.

"Kingston," answered Phillips. "How did it get there?" "I was down there."

"What did you do with the purse?" "It is at Kingston with the same person."

"What did you do with the money?" "Spent it."

"You've been in trouble before?" "Yes."

"How many times?" "I do not know."

Mr. Mathews then remarked that accused spent three months in jail on his last offence.

"How many times were you in jail before?"

"I do not remember."

"Quite a number," remarked Mr. Mathews.

Magistrate Woodliffe then passed sentence of 60 days in the common jail.

Mr. Connell said that the sweater was maroon in color and new. Arrangements were to be made with Kingston police to reclaim the other articles.

THE FUL-O-PEP PLAN HELPS POULTRYMEN SAVE UP TO 30 PER CENT TO 50 PER CENT ON COST OF FEEDING NEW PULLETS

- Some have asked why a commercial feed manufacturer advocates a plan of restricted feeding.
- The answer is simple. By advocating this basic principle in the Ful-O-Pep Rearing Plan, substantial economies are possible to alert poultrymen, and at the same time he can raise a stronger, healthier bird than by unlimited feeding.
- With Ful-O-Pep Chick Starter and Growing Mash—so exceptionally rich in nutritive value—as a foundation of the Ful-O-Pep plan, poultrymen may complete the growing ration with whole oats and scratch grains, thus saving considerable money.
- We believe this to be an important contribution to the practical poultryman's method of operation. For complete information address your card or letter now to:

An item recently appeared in a London, England, paper about two Canadian soldiers who, on a sight-seeing tour of London, called at No. 10 Downing St., and asked if they could have one of Mr. Chamberlain's umbrellas "for our colonel." The under-secretary promised the soldiers one would be sent. The two Canadian soldiers referred to are Gordon Thompson, Newmarket, and a buddy of his, Sam Fields, both of the Lorne Scots Regiment.

While in London on leave they had the pleasure of attending the presentation of the colors of the Welsh Guards at the Tower of London. On leaving the tower, the king saluted and smiled at the unofficial guard of honor of 14 Canadian soldiers and two sailors.

RED CROSS SOCIETY PACKS ANOTHER BALE
The Red Cross Society's sewing and knitting departments set off on Saturday another splendid shipment. The following comprises the list: sewing, three doz. face masks, seven doz. handkerchiefs, two dozen pairs pajamas, one doz. pneumonia jackets, four bed gowns, one and a half doz. surgeon's gowns and caps; knitting: 19 sweaters, 12 scarves, four helmets, three and a half doz. wristlets, nine doz. and seven pairs of socks.

The society would like to express its appreciation to the following citizens and societies for their kindness in supplying wool and work. They have contributed handsomely in sweaters, socks and wristlets: Mrs. E. J. Davis, Mrs. A. J. Davis, Catholic Women's League and Yonge St. sewing circle.

The children of Newmarket are also doing their bit, their work is of a high standard and would do honor to anyone. The society supplied the wool to St. Paul's Girls' Guild and Girl Guides, who made scarves, socks and wristlets. The Catholic Junior League have knit lovely sweaters for the refugees, with wool supplied by the society. This is most gratifying and it is hoped this excellent output can be continued as all supplies are badly needed.

The society would like to convey every encouragement to those splendid young people who have so nobly responded to the call.

"WAY DOWN SOUTH" SHOW IS A HUMDINGER
Cotton grows on a low bush in the southern United States, similar to the milkweed plant. The small fluffs of blossom from the cotton we know as raw cotton - so says the Encyclopedia Britannica. But if we were to tell you that you can witness a real cotton field, with negro slaves, right here in Newmarket, well, even Ripley wouldn't print it. But we will! Because neither the encyclopedia nor Robert Ripley knows of the Newmarket Minstrels or the determination of Producer Alex. Eves to have realistic scenes from southern leaves transplanted to the Newmarket stage.

Ripley would grow green with envy if he could see the slaves in singing zones of sorrow and joy as they picked the cotton and packed it ready for the huge river boat which steams in later in the show to pick up the loads. Imagine all this semi-tropic scenery with March winds howling around the town hall!

The lucky spot skates were won by Irma Baker and Jake Thompson, Mary Osborne and Graydon Rogers. The third couple could not be located.

War Censors "Broken-Down Lawyers," Says Dix Speaker

KING GOVERNMENT INEFFICIENT, SAY NATIONAL SPEAKERS

Before an enthusiastic audience in Mechanics' hall on Saturday evening, national government supporters fired their opening gun in the intensive political struggle locally on behalf of Rev. Capt. George Dix.

Dr. C. R. Boulding was chairman of the meeting and seated on the platform were Clifford Case, K.C., Dr. George Lockhart of King, and Paul Angle of Richmond Hill. Hollis Acres, M.L.A., for Carleton, scheduled to address the meeting, was unable to be present and chief speaker for the evening beside the candidate was Fred Gardiner, K.C., reeve of Forest Hill.

Clifford Case, ex-M.L.A., introduced Mr. Gardiner, and charged that there was evidence of corruption on the part of the present administration, just as with King at the helm there had been the customs scandal and Beauchamps.

Mr. Gardiner vigorously took the Liberals to task for daring to assert they possessed all the brains needed to properly conduct the war efforts of Canada.

"We should take an example from England, when war came political differences were forgotten," he said. "Chamberlain took back Churchill and Eden, and no smallness was shown by any of the party leaders."

He charged the prerogative of parliament was a carefully conceived plan of the government to escape the scrutiny of parliament.

He said King had only been forced into the war by public demand, after being shamed by the prompt actions of the other dominions in coming to the aid of the empire.

"Political patronage is rampant now," he said, citing the Spencer purchase in Vancouver of a residence for $94,000 for officers' quarters, when the actual value, he said, was $44,000. The Rabinovitch deal in Mont-

WANT MORE MEMBERS

A campaign for members is being carried on by the Aurora horticultural society, under the direction of President James Raeside. Normal membership is about 100, but the society expects to exceed this number this year.

real would net a political friend over $175,000 profit in ten years, he said. In Kingston a company, controlled by Liberal executives and capitalized at $10,000, with no practical experience had been awarded contracts in excess of a million dollars. Democratic institutions were being lost, with government censors, whom he termed "broken-down lawyers, unable to earn their own living in practice, and now uncivil servants of the government."

Dr. C. R. Boulding charged Mr. Mulock with getting nothing for North York during his tenure of office. "What war contracts have come to North York?" he asked. "What protection from foreign competitors has been given our shoe and leather industries? All we have to show for his efforts are dredging and wharfs in the north part of the county."

Capt. Dix cited the unity and example of Australia and New Zealand and felt Canada lagged behind.

"Leadership and efficiency are lacking," he declared. "I am a man of the people. I know your problems. I make no promises but feel I can do something for you. I will not forget the human element, the unemployed, the youth, the farmers who have all been betrayed by the do-nothing attitude of Mr. King."

"The government denies charges that Canada is behind in its preparations for war. Ask the soldier, the sailor, the aviator. He will tell you the truth, and condemn the government. We all know the scarcity of equipment, the deprivations, the entire laissez-faire policy that allowed such a state of affairs to arise in the face of certain knowledge."

Tigers Eliminate U.C.C. And Enter Junior B Round-Robin

THIRD GAME WITH U.C.C. IS TRIUMPH FOR TIGERS, 5-3

In a superb exhibition of speed, stamina and courage in the face of odds, Aurora Tigers vanquished Upper Canada College 5-3, on Friday afternoon at Maple Leaf Gardens, to advance into the famed round-robin Junior B series. In spite of the afternoon game, Aurora fans journeyed to Toronto in goodly numbers determined to back the Tigers to the limit, and the faithful followers had their reward and nearly brought down the roof with their roars, as Joint McComb scored two killer-diller goals in the last period to break up one of the most thrilling games ever played by an Aurora team. The return of Captain Jimmy Cummings to the line-up, and the feeling that the breaks were with their opponents, was all that was needed to send the Tigers into the game with their great fighting heart fully restored.

Full Speed Ahead
The first period was Aurora's all the way, and in place of the two-goal lead they had when the first 20 minutes were over they should have had at least five counters, but over-anxiousness and superb work by Lawson kept down the total. Cummings got the first counter as he followed in after Donkin had tested the blue and white net-minder with a hard shot, and he made no mistake as he picked the upper corner. Two minutes later Jimmy Lowe battled his way through the Upper Canada defence to score the prettiest goal of the day.

ENTERTAIN NEIGHBORING W. A. BRANCHES

NINETY-FIVE YESTERDAY, MRS. CORNELIUS DIKE MARRIED IN 1867, RECALLS CRIMEAN WAR

The oldest resident of Whitchurch township, and one of the oldest persons in the province, Mrs. Cornelius Dike of the second concession yesterday celebrated the 95th anniversary of her birth.

As is her custom, Mrs. Dike went about her usual duties, although she spent part of the day reading telegrams, letters and cards of congratulation, and receiving a number of callers.

Mrs. Dike enjoys all her normal faculties and has a remarkably good memory. She tells most interesting stories of 60, 70 and 80 years ago. She has distinct recollections of the Crimean War. She had a brother killed in the U. S. civil war.

Mrs. Dike is of Irish descent, her maiden name being Mary Jane Watters. She was born March 13, 1845, and on March 13, 1867, married Cornelius Dike, living for a time near Uxbridge and later moving to her present home.

During the passing of the years, nine children were born, all but one of whom are still living. They are: Lucy, Mrs. J. W. Widdifield, Uxbridge; Minnie, deceased; Annie, at home; Newton and Oliver, Fenelon Falls; Archibald, near Sharon; Bertam, Pine Orchard; Howard, at home; and Zella, Mrs. Harry West, Bogartown.

Mrs. Dike has been a member of Wesley church, Vandort, for many years.

That this fine lady, aged, but enjoying reasonably good health, and having won the respect and esteem of all who know her, will live to enjoy many happy returns of the day is the hope of a multitude of friends and acquaintances.

A.H.S. STUDENTS HOLD MOCK PARLIAMENT

Last Friday, under the direction of Mr. O'Bryne, students of Aurora high school held a mock parliament, complete with all the trimmings and frills of Queen's Park.

Bill Walker acted as lieutenant-governor. John Sisman was premier and Raymond Cook was leader of the opposition. Rev. G. O. Lightbourn took part in the opening ceremonies. Dudley Wilcox, immaculate in morning clothes, took over the duties of "Mr. Speaker" and handled the gavel in great style.

Chief piece of legislation before the house was a resolution presented by Miss Floral Davis, minister of education, which sought to establish consolidated public school areas. The bill went down to defeat by a vote of the members, though what the member for North York did still remains a mystery. Judges who were present afterwards evened up matters as they opined the government had the best heavy of debaters.

Prominent among those who participated in parliamentary debate were Miss D. Ball and G. Smith. Younger members of the school acted as page boys, while cadet uniformed guards and attendants were on hand.

ONTARIO PRESIDENT ADDRESSES WOMEN

Aurora Ladies' Liberal Association were honored on Saturday afternoon by a visit from Mrs. C. R. Widdifield of Galt, president of the Ontario Women's Liberal Association, at a tea held at the home of Mrs. Jas. Whimster, Victoria St. W. P. Mulock, M.P., the Liberal candidate, and Morgan Baker, M. L. A., were among those present.

Dealing with war conditions Mrs. Widdifield commended the King government for its actions and stressed the fact that prices had been kept down to the consumer and adequate provisions had been made to protect the Canadian people from the exploitation experienced during the last war.

W. P. Mulock urged his hearers to leave no stone unturned so far as organization went. Over-confidence was a bad thing, he said. He termed the national government movement as one of political expediency and he felt it would be national calamity if the King government was not returned to power. He expressed confidence as to the outcome in North York.

Mrs. Norman Eade was in charge of refreshments, with Mrs. G. Williams, Mrs. L. J. Hartmann and Mrs. Charles Webster presiding at the tea tables. Tea assistants included Misses B. Charles, Mary Walton, Bertha Andrews, E. Ough, Eleanor and Margaret Webster, and Mrs. L. C. Lee, Mrs. George Walker, Mrs. B. Rowe and Mrs. F. Smith.

VETERANS WILL HEAR COL. REYNOLDS

A meeting of the Canadian Corps will be held in Mechanics' hall on Friday evening, which all veterans in North York have been invited to attend. Col. Reynolds, the dominion president of the corps, is to address the meeting. Veterans "to shun."

MRS. C. M. LOVEYS ADDRESSES W. M. S.

Sunday was the Women's Missionary Society Sunday at Aurora United church and Mrs. C. M. Loveys of Toronto, secretary of home missions for the United church, was the special speaker. A special offering of over $25 was received by the W. M. S.

Mrs. Loveys told of the work being carried on among the new Canadians who have come to these shores from other lands. "There are more than 70 nationalities, and more than 100 languages in our country," she stated. "We allowed these people to enter Canada and to settle here, we must see that they assimilate only the best features of the Canadian scene. We must be responsible for our share of the spiritual work. The Christian religion has many critics but no rivals."

Mrs. Loveys also told of the work of the Church of All Nations on Queen St., Toronto, and told of a peace conference held among the various peoples there during present war days with Holman Hunt's picture, "The Light of the World," the principal theme.

Dr. Thompson was in charge of the evening service of the church.

PAY BIRTHDAY VISIT

While visiting in Toronto last Saturday, about 26 of Mrs. Stella Boyd's friends dropped in to wish her many happy returns of her birthday, which was on Monday, March 11. There were friends from town and friends from Toronto, and they report a very pleasant time.

DOWN THE CENTRE

PLAY-OFF PARADE

Aurora Tigers, after a thrill-packed series with Upper Canada, have entered the round-robin play-offs in the Junior B series—a big achievement in their first venture in a higher junior series. W. A. Hewitt told the writer on Saturday that in place of the usual four teams in the series there would be five this year. Brantford Lions, conquerors of London and Niagara Falls, are installed as favorites for the title. Strongman at centre and Cheetham on the defence are the spearheads of a star-studded line-up. Oshawa vanquished Kingston, who in turn had put away Belleville and Brockville, other group winners.

Owen Sound and Waterloo Siskins by careful maneuvering have avoided meeting each other, and so at this late date without a second-round play-down are into the contention. Owen Sound, we suspect, craftily prolonged its series with Barrie Colts, while Waterloo were forced to wait for a winner from a prolonged set-to between Hamilton Photos and Stratford Mites. Tigers have played a heavier schedule the past month than any of the other entrants, and being over a mid-season slump critics predict they will be the Dark Horses of the series. They lost to Waterloo 3-1 in the S.P.A. series, although they had the edge on the play, and Waterloo have lost their big ace, Malcheske, so both teams should be fairly even. In the inter-group matches they tied in games and goals with Owen Sound Greys. Barrie rates Tigers superior to the Greys, while Midland and Kingsway supporters think both teams about even if Aurora plays good hockey.

Oshawa you saw on Monday night. They won't be any better in the series. We've mentioned that by all Brantford are top heavy favorites, they don't be surprised if somebody topples them. The Coaches are all men of long experience. Tommy Ivanoff mentors the Lions. He has played hockey mostly in Brantford and has a long refereeing experience. His players are all experienced boys and coaching them should be largely a matter of keeping esprit de corps.

Plunky Lewis, the colored director of the Greys, has a speedy team which we think is hard to handle, and we think Lewis is ready to play for. No team except Lions enters the series more confident of success than the Greys.

George Hainsworth coaches the Siskins, and has his nephew in goal. They play a gangling game, are very fast, mostly local boys, and Hainsworth has complete control. Doc Bowden, all-round athlete, and a star player in his own right, has charge of the motor city crew. Tracy Shaw helps out both with coaching and the loan of players from time to time. Rowntree and Teasdale are a smooth-working team. Rowntree's record is as good as anyone's, and he knows how to handle boys. "Tiny" has a world of experience and has a keen eye to analyze the opponents' play.

Take your choice on them. It looks like a long round of head-aches for some of these guys. Personally, we think they're about even in abilities, and we'd rather have a team with a Fighting Heart that never knows when its beaten than a highly specialized mechanism. No team in the series will be gamier than Aurora.

The Arenas find Aurora the only natural ice team, and with the smallest ice surface and seating capacity, but Maple Leaf Gardens will be our home after the ice goes here, and either site is nothing new to the locals. Practice at the gardens will help out.

Owen Sound and the Kitchener rink, where Waterloo plays, are both familiar to most of the players. Oshawa ice is the biggest of the outside rinks, but after the gardens, shouldn't be too tough. Brantford is the smallest of the lot, and it's reputed to be a tough town for visiting teams to get a break there, and the fans are the most rabid in the circuit. Brantford is the only team to have a representative on the O.H.A. executive, the prexy himself, genial Jimmy Douglas, one of the finest sportsmen in Ontario.

The Junior B title has never been won by any of the competing clubs, nor have teams from any of the centres reached the final round, although both Oshawa and Waterloo have been in the round-robin series before. Championships in some series have been won by all centres except Brantford. Oshawa has won in Intermediate A and Junior A. They are the present dominion junior champs. Owen Sound won the Junior A title in 1924 and 1927. Waterloo alone never won, but coupled with Kitchener won titles in all series. Remember the K and W teams? Aurora, of course, won its only title last year in C. It Can't Last! That's what Brantford fans say. "This is our year." Aurora fans have adopted the slogan, "Make It Two for Two."

Friday night finds Tigers invading Owen Sound, and then on Wednesday they go to Kitchener to meet Waterloo Siskins. Owen Sound comes back here on Good Friday. Two road wins would look mighty sweet, but it will be a real feat to perform.

FESTIVAL FLASHES

Adjudicators for the York musical festival this year, to be held in Aurora United church the week of May 13, will be Miss Nina Gale, who will hear classes in the vocal and choral sections and Mrs. Ernest Thomas, who comes for reading and elocution classes with experience at the C.N.E. and Toronto Conservatory. She was also director of exposition in the University of Saskatchewan. This will be the first occasion two women have acted as adjudicators here.

Harry Adaskin and Frank Welsman are well-known figures in musical circles. The former will adjudicate string and orchestra classes. The latter will hear all contestants in the piano, brass and wood-wind sections. For contestants this is an opportunity to receive constructive criticism by a competent critic. Entries close April 15. For those who listen this is an opportunity to test one's judgment against that of an authority.

Take Oshawa By Two Goals In First Of Round-Robin

JIMMY LOWE PLAYS BRILLIANTLY, ENTIRE TEAM IN TOP FORM

Aurora Tigers, displaying one of their best games of the season, got off on the right foot in the first of the Junior B round-robin series by taking Oshawa "cokes" into camp 5-3, on Monday evening in Aurora, and thereby winning for themselves two valuable points in the play-off standing. Tigers were never headed, although the motor city boys did draw on even terms twice. Jimmy Lowe did the hat trick, securing three brilliant goals in a row for the locals, and then, to mix up matters, tangled with McMullen of the visitors in a free-for-all that had all the players on the ice involved at one stage. Both offenders drew major penalties.

Early in the first period Tunney was called upon to make several nice saves, and McMullen nearly beat him twice. "Pete" Donkin likewise had two real chances that went for naught. Both teams drew two penalties in the period, Lowe going off for tripping, McMullen for roughing, Fraser for cross-checking and Curtis for tripping. The first two penalties were not capitalized on by either team, but when Fraser was thumbed, Lowe and Curtis combined to open the scoring, Jimmy sending home a sizzler to the upper right corner. Curtis was then sent off as the period ended.

Pressing hard in the second round with the man advantage, Oshawa soon evened the score as Gar Peters picked up a loose puck and coasted in close before firing. Lowe got his second goal of the night unassisted at 9.30 following a ganging attack, this time sending it to the upper left corner of the twine. Six minutes later Lowe again cashed in as he took a pass from Harry Pearce. Then came the miniature battle

SOLDIER OPERATED ON
Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Teasdale, Temperance St., have received word that their son, Fred, who is in England at Aldershot camp with the Toronto Scottish regiment, recently underwent an operation, and is recuperating successfully.

McMullen clashed. Scott and Fraser also tangled in the eyes of Referee Holmes and all four got the gate. Playing four men a side, "Scotty" Reid went past Martin to score neatly. A minute later Michaniuk backhanded one into the visitors' net as Curtis set up the play.

In the end period, McComb went in close on Phillips to fire home a well-timed effort. Oshawa now put on a sustained drive which netted them only one goal, as Tunney and Martin rose to defensive heights. Brennan also turned in a nice effort. Further Aurora chances were thwarted by Phillips. Aurora drew two penalties to Oshawa's one, but no damage resulted. As the final minute came Donkin and Jackson collided head-on in the Oshawa zone and "Pete" had to be carried off the ice. Final examination showed no injuries.

Lowe led the Aurora attack, closely followed by his line fellows, McComb and Pearce. Curtis and Martin were steady and Brennan played a fine game as he went through his second straight game without a penalty. Tunney had an edge over his rival, Phillips, who turned in a nice game.

Oshawa: goal, Phillips; defence, Fraser and Morris; centre, J. Hewson; wings, Peters and Reid; alternates, Jackson, McMullen, Breen, Raine and C. Hewson.

Aurora: goal, Tunney; defence, Scott and Martin; centre, Pearce; wings, Lowe and Michaniuk; alternates, McComb, Cummings, Donkin, Brennan and Curtis. Referee: Ken Holmesshaw.

VIVIAN

WOMAN LOSES LIFE IN FALL INTO WELL

A very sad accident occurred on Tuesday, March 5, when Mrs. D. Dick of Siloam, while getting a pail of water from an open well, slipped and fell in and was drowned, when her husband returned from work.

Her son was also away at the time and her little daughter, about ten years of age, was at school. She was a sister of Mrs. Clifford Rose, formerly of Hartman, but now living in Newmarket.

The young people of Vivian are practising for a concert, which they intend giving at Vandorf around Easter time.

Everyone is patiently waiting for a little spring weather. On Sunday, March 24, Mr. Rowan intends having a special speaker for both morning and evening services. Friends are pleased to know that Mr. John Mitchell of Vivian is able to get out to church again. He has not been well for some time.

Mr. Thackman has rented the farm next him, which Mr. Needler worked last year. He is also building several more cottages to accommodate the many guests which flock from Toronto during the summer months. He has had the pond at the rear of his cottages cleaned and a new dam built, and is now having a well dug for their convenience.

The late Mr. Ferguson was in his 73rd year, and leaves his widow, two sons and their young families.

Wednesday was the off-day in March, just the day to stay indoors and keep the home fires burning. Lindsey Ferguson, wife and eight children, living near Stouffville, elected to move their farm stock, implements, and household goods to a farm near Rockwood, where they have bought a farm. They were assisted by Mrs. Ferguson's brother, Scott Bovair, Arthur, and his daughter, Edith.

The King pupils at Aurora high school did not get home until around ten p.m. one evening last week when the King bus broke down on the summit hill and all got out and pushed the bus to the nearest garage. Later, the deep snow delayed the bus and several pupils had to walk home through deepening snow drifts.

Eversley W. A. met at Mrs. Gellatly's home on Wednesday and planned a box social for St. Patrick's for the next meeting.

Next Monday night, March 18, the Young People's society will hold their social evening at the home of Mrs. Gellatly. The Toronto executive of the Young People's council are to come up and give the program, after which a social hour will be enjoyed.

Yours truly attended the Aurora-Oshawa fracas on Monday night and really enjoyed the brand of hockey the boys dished up.

The donnybrook in the second canto was a masterpiece, nobody hitting but everybody having a swell time pawing the other fellow, and, incidentally, both teams were in the affair except Tunney, the Aurora goalie, who stood back and thoroughly enjoyed the fight.

McComb (who was thoroughly combed all evening by the Oshawa defence) and McMullen, swarthy winger for the red team, started the fracas with Lowe of Aurora and Reid of Oshawa joining the pastime immediately.

One spot where the referee slipped up was the last Oshawa counter which scored inside the crease, altho' Tunney protested the official turned a deaf ear to his pleas and the counter stood.

Lowe, with three counters, was the highscorer for the Tiger team, while McComb and Michanuk were the other goal-getters, altho' the whole team turned in a smart effort.

Tonite is the third game of the mercantile series for the town crown, with the O.S.M. having a chance to tie the series by winning the next two games, while the Davis Leather can end the series with a win tonite.

The last game was a peach, with everything in it from free-for-all to smooth hockey that was as good as any in the O.H.A. intermediate series.

Along the grapevine . . . Again last Saturday Newmarket's Hughie Mair paced the Marlboros to victory over the Guelph Biltmores . . . Scoring no less than five goals and assisting in one other, Hughie had the Guelph lads dizzy trying to put the finger on him . . . Incidentally, the line of Gillespie-McLaughlin-Mair accounted for the bulk of the Dukes' goals for the whole series with Guelph . . . Joe Tunney, the local boy tending the twine for the Aurora Tigers, scintillated throughout the Oshawa tangle the other evening . . . Jackson, the ex-Pete, was the best man on the ice for the Oshawa squad, and was dangerous every minute . . . We notice that Fred Gibbon, younger brother of Jackie, who played centre for the local reds this season, is not a softie . . . He made Al Grant take back a few stitches last Saturday at Varsity arena. So long.

KING TOWNSHIP KING WILL VOTE ON TWO-YEAR COUNCIL

The clerk was instructed to secure the necessary by-law forms to refer the question of two year terms for municipal councils to the electors at the regular meeting of King township council, which was held at Armstrong's hotel last Saturday. This can be effected only by a favorable referendum of the electors. All members were present at the meeting.

General accounts were passed as follows: James Duggan, meals for transients, $1; Frank Armstrong, rent for council meeting, $5; Arthur Wellesley, school attendance work, $9.60; North York Registry office, searches, $7.61; H. G. Rose, registrations, $15.50; department of health, insulin, $3.69; Harry Woods, cartage, 25 cents; Town of Aurora, King share of division court, $20.

Maurice Hayward, constable services, $3.10; Thos. MacMurchy, postage, $1.50; C. Nydam, supplies, $3; Chas. H. Ross, relief services and postage, $21.25; Peter Ollekalpen, $18; Morley Proctor, $8; W. W. Gardhouse, hospital relief, $89.25; Schomburg Agricultural Society, rental, Jr. Farmers' course, $48.

Relief voucher, $265.90; road voucher No. 3, $1,532.53.

The term for the collection of taxes for the year 1939 for the collector, C. H. Ross, was extended to April 30.

The treasurer was authorized to issue a cheque to the Hydro-Electric Power Commission, Richmond Hill, for $16.95, this amount being placed on the 1939 tax roll covering arrears for hydro on the property described as part of Lot 65, Concession 1, in the name of Mrs. Estella Hill, paid at the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Aurora, in the amount of $42.05, which paid the 1939 taxes.

The solicitor was asked to prepare the necessary tax sale deeds for all properties purchased by this municipality at the tax sale of Dec. 21, 1938, which have not been redeemed.

The road insurance of this township for the year 1940 was given to G. Lloyd, representing A. E. Wilson and Company, of Toronto, for the premium of $342.14, and the treasurer was authorized to issue a cheque for the same.

The clerk was instructed to have the agreement signed with R. F. Gilmore, Ballycroy, Ont., regarding supply of power for road work in King township. His tender to operate the grader and maintainer in accordance with specifications at $2 an hour for each machine was accepted. This was the lowest tender, with the highest horsepower, submitted in the advertised time.

PEPPER AND SALT

The recognized fact that, in a game of hockey, brawn is seldom a match for brains was clearly demonstrated when the high school senior hockey team laid low Sutton high school five goals to none last Thursday to capture the North York League crown. The land of the summer season boys, with all their brawn, were no match for the fast-stepping locals. They were strictly a band of soloists.

The purple and gold front line of Jelley, Hamilton and Luck put the finesse gained in Junior O.H.A. competition to great use by counting the entire five goals. The roster of the championship N.H.S. team reads like this: Bruce Cutting, "Smoke" Kirbyson, Fred Bray, Cyril Gibbons, Myles Melnis, Bill Jelley, Howard Hamilton, Jack Luck, Bob Smith and Cliff Barker.

Strictly localities and still in the running for various puck and stick honors still in abeyance are Herb Cain, Larry Molyneux, Bill Thoms, Bill Wilson, "Scotty" Mair, Joe Tunney and Fred Evans. Probably there are other unassuming Newmarket blade artists still in there. It will be interesting to see which of these are on the top pinnacle at the end of this season's operations.

The high school junior boys' basketball team lost to Aurora in the local gym on Monday. This is definitely not the senior or junior boys' year in basketball. By winning this game, the Aurora team became champions of their group as are the Aurora seniors.

Also Monday afternoon, the first and second form all-star hockey players defeated the public and separate school stars 4-2.

This game has now established itself as an annual affair and intense rivalry has sprung up. To lose such a game would mean a great loss of face to the secondaries.

March of Time Picture "CANADA AT WAR"

THE Board of Censors, acting under the authority of The Theatres and Cinematographs Act, Chapter 319 of the Revised Statutes of Ontario 1937, has prohibited the exhibition of the film "Canada at War." In the opinion of the Board the picture is capable of being used—and is, in fact, presently being used in Canada—not for purposes of entertainment or education but for political propaganda. In proof of this, a copy of an advertisement published in Vancouver, B.C., papers under the sponsorship of the Vancouver Liberal Association is shown hereunder.

SMALLPOX

the cause and prevention of them.

We all know that most diseases are carried by germs, and such germs are disease germs. But to some of us the word germ is kind of hazy. A germ is a very small particle of plant or animal life, so small that it must be viewed under the microscope, where it is magnified sometimes a thousand times its diameter before it can be seen.

Each infectious disease is caused by its own germ and in order to cause any particular disease, there must first be contact between the person and the causative germ. In other words, one cannot develop tuberculosis from a cold. There must first be access of the tubercle bacillus to the human body, and the same applies to the other communicable diseases.

Sometimes, as in the case of diphtheria or typhoid fever, a person, after recovering from one of these diseases, may harbor the germs in his body for a long time and infect other individuals. Or sometimes an individual who has never himself been ill with a disease, may act as a carrier. There are diphtheria and typhoid carriers.

Methods of Spread

By discharges from the NOSE, THROAT, BLADDER, BOWELS. Discharge from the MOUTH or NOSE, or the GERM LADEN BREATH may be responsible for carrying the following diseases: The common cold, influenza, pneumonia, tonsillitis, scarlet fever, diphtheria, cerebro-spinal fever, tuberculosis, measles, mumps, whooping cough, smallpox, chicken pox, polio-myelitis and syphilis.

Disease germs may be carried into the body by the water we drink or the food we eat, or by drinking cups, towels and especially unclean hands.

Disease germs gain access to the body through the mouth, nose, the mucous membranes or a break in the skin.

Especially mention in the Home Nursing Manual is made of the three "F's".

The common HOUSE FLY breeds in filth and manure beds and carries all kinds of filth and germs on its feet to the baby, the table, the milk.

FOOD that has been handled by unclean hands, or that has been exposed to flies or other poisonous substances, may plant the germs of disease within the body.

FINGERS. Ten busy fingers collect dirt from everywhere from morn till night and these same fingers make thousands of unnecessary trips to the mouth, carrying untold germs to be taken into the body. MORAL—keep your fingers away from your mouth. Wash your hands before eating. Do not under any circumstances pick your teeth with your fingers.

The COMMON HOUSE FLY is the worst menace to health that people have to contend with in the summer time, and yet they are not so numerous as they used to be. What is more disgusting in a hotel or restaurant than a cloud of flies over the table? You simply never go back to the same place. And the cradle that contains a baby fairly eaten up with flies is usually afflicted with vomiting, diarrhoea or indigestion. (1) Exterminate the flies. Keep the baby clean and give it pasteurized milk if you would have a healthy child. (2) Keep the doors and windows well screened. (3) The frequent use of fly spray to kill the flies.

Immunization

Immunization is the protection of an individual against a disease by the inoculation or injection of an attenuated or modified form of the causative organism or germs.

Our first immunization was smallpox vaccination of a good many years ago, and we all know that vaccination makes people immune to smallpox.

Then came immunization against diphtheria by toxoiding, the effect of which is shown by the fact that we have not had a real case of diphtheria in or about town for many years.

Toxoiding against scarlet fever is carried out by giving five doses of the toxoid at 5 to 7 days' interval.

Toxoiding against typhoid fever is done with success and is used more where large numbers of people are segregated together, but has never been done as a routine among school children.

Immunization when properly done is practically safe, harmless and successful, and the time to do it is during the pre-school age, so that the children may have the benefit of the protection on entering school and that there may be no loss of time.

Arrangements are being made to hold a toxoid clinic in the public and separate schools this spring, when all parents wishing to have their children toxoided against diphtheria and smallpox will have the opportunity to have them done. As scarlet fever toxoiding requires some further consideration and as it takes more time, this will be left to be taken up with the family physician.

Consider the thousands of people who have suffered and died from typhoid fever, smallpox and diphtheria, and consider what has been accomplished in the way of reducing the number of cases of these diseases.

The decreasing number of cases of typhoid is an indication of the efficiency of health agencies—the disinfection of the excretions of the body of the patient, the care of the water and the water supply. While M.O.H. of our town a few years ago, about at the time of the last of our typhoid, all the cases were in houses where the water supply was from domestic wells, while all the people who used water from artesian wells escaped. We have but very few of the dug wells in town and the water is usually found to be class "B" and requires to be boiled before it is safe to use, while the artesian well water is always class "A" in spite of all the criticism that may be levelled against it. There has not been a case of this disease around Newmarket for ten or 15 years.

Smallpox outbreaks are not very common, owing to vaccination. This very useful preventative is being neglected and nothing but a smallpox epidemic will force everybody into general vaccination again.

Diphtheria, which used to wipe out whole large families 60 years ago, has become almost extinct by the discovery of diphtheria antitoxin, and later by toxoiding of all the children.

Tuberculosis

At the present time, the provincial board of health has put on an intensive campaign against tuberculosis, which is at the present time the most important of the communicable diseases we have to deal with.

This disease is preventable, it is curable and it affects all ages and all races of people. The Indians of Snake and Georgina Islands have a very poor resistance against the inroads of T.B. and as a result the population of these islands has been very much reduced in the last 50 years.

It is difficult to tell the exact time of its insidious onset, or the length of time during which a person may have the disease. A person often has it for many years without showing any evidence of its presence. In fact, most persons harbor the germs of the disease in their bodies and at the time of some other affliction when the resistance is lowered, the tuberculosis may develop and make its presence known.

The following instructions are issued to the medical doctors of the province from the provincial board of health, intended for the eradication of tuberculosis, and if the public in general will understand the importance of them, and co-operate with the doctors and with the health authorities, it will greatly hasten the day when our people will be as free from tuberculosis as they are from typhoid fever, smallpox and diphtheria.

(1) When a doctor finds that anyone is suffering from tuberculosis, he is required to notify the M.O.H. or the secretary of his municipality of such disease within 24 hours.

(2) The next important step is to segregate all persons suffering from the disease, where they may be educated in the manner of taking care of themselves, thus promoting their own recovery and lessening the big danger of seeing others being infected with the same disease, even though it may not make its appearance for years later. Besides, the results of institutional treatment by the many modern methods have resulted in the cure of a very high percentage of all cases.

It is very important that anyone with a positive sputum, that is, containing the causative germs of T.B., should not live in contact with children or young adults.

(3) When a case of tuberculosis has been diagnosed, one of the first and important steps is to search out all persons who have been living with him, or have been in continuous contact. All such persons are given a careful examination and if there is evidence of the disease, he is given the benefit of treatment.

(4) In spite of the present short-cut to the diagnosis of the disease, the early diagnosis cannot be made after the infection until the T.B. germs have had sufficient time to lay down the product of their nefarious work in the chest of the unfortunate individual. In cases where formerly the unfavorable family history, or the unhealthy condition of a person, suggested a physical examination by a doctor, in order to determine the existence of the disease, at the present time the first procedure is the "skin test." If this skin test is negative, it proves that the person is not tubercular, while if it is positive, it proves that the person must have been in contact with the disease at some time in his life, and makes it imperative to have an x-ray examination of the chest in order to determine if there is any evidence of the disease. Even an x-ray that does not show any tuberculous process at work should not be taken as final, but the person should be re-checked occasionally for several years in order to be able to catch any diseased process in its earliest stage.

(5) Next in order comes the sputum test. T.B. germs being found in the sputum establishes a positive diagnosis and makes it imperative that such infected person should not live with children or young adults. It is said that most tubercular subjects become infected when about two years of age.

(6) In view of the fact that sanatorium treatment is free to all persons affected with tuberculosis (that is, where the individual is unable to pay), there is a ready response and people are taking advantage of the hospitalization.

Needless Exposure

Some foolish mothers preach that all children are born to have the measles. This is about as crazy as the inscription found over German schools: "You were born to die for Germany."

While you preach this dangerous doctrine, just remember that there is never an epidemic of a communicable disease that does not leave its mark. If it is not an empty cradle, it will be some life-long affliction. The younger the child the lower the resistance and the greater the danger.

When to Call the Doctor While talking to a friend, a farmer who had a lovely herd of horses and cattle, I asked him how often he had to call the veterinary to attend his herd and he told me that when a cow or a horse was taken sick, if its value was as much as the cost of the veterinary's visit, he sent for the veterinary. "Are ye not of more account than the beasts of the field?"

The symptoms of many of these communicable diseases are so similar and often so baffling at first, that it is better to call the doctor too soon than too late. So that when a child gets up in the morning with chills, fever, vomiting, sore throat or a rash, it is a wise parent who will call the doctor, for you cannot afford to gamble where a human life is concerned.

Isolation

Did you ever go into a room with three or four children suffering from some contagious disease as diphtheria? I have often and they will die like rats in a trap if they are not singled out. Children suffering from some diseases such as measles, scarlet fever and diphtheria require to be isolated until such time as they are not likely to communicate that the room is to be cleared of all unnecessary furniture and trimmings, a sheet saturated with disinfectant placed across the door-way and no one allowed to enter but the doctor and the nurse.

The Nurse That angel of mercy, the nurse, should wear plain washable clothing, a large loose apron that is easy to slip out of when she leaves the room to take her meals. She should keep her hair well under control of a cap that is more useful than ornamental, and she should be careful to dip her hands in some ready-at-hand disinfectant solution before leaving the room. Her laundry should be placed in a tub of cold water with washing soda and allowed to soak for a time before it goes in with the family washing.

Care of the Discharges from the Nose and Throat

People suffering from diseases such as tuberculosis, cold, influenza, pneumonia, whooping cough, scarlet fever or diphtheria, should remember the discharge from the nose or throat is very infectious to others and one should not spit where it will dry and leave the germs free to be carried through the air. Tubercle bacilli have been recovered from the sweepings of a pullman car. The disease may be carried by the use of improperly washed dishes or by handling soiled pocket handkerchiefs. The dishes from a sick room, where there is any contagious disease, should be scalded, boiled or disinfected before being used by others. Instead of using pocket handkerchiefs, it is better and safer to use pieces of rag that can be burned or paper "kleenex" that can be destroyed. These are very sanitary as well as economical. Just near the head of the bed, just out of sight, there should be a paper bag, into which these kleenex or cotton cloths may be thrown to be burned once a day.

If cotton pocket handkerchiefs are used, they should be left to soak in cold water and washing soda, then boiled for 20 minutes. They are then safe to be laundered with the rest of the family washing.

The sputum from the T. B. subject should be put in a sputum cup which has a handle and a hinged lid and covered inside with a removable, wax paper lining, or re-fill. These refills can be burned once or twice a day.

In spite of the many signs in public places, written in French and English, "It is unlawful to spit," that is one important rule our people have never learned and pay but very little attention to it. Every person should use a handkerchief on the street when expectorating or sneezing.

Care of the Discharges from the Bowels and Bladder The discharges from the bowels or bladder of people suffering from typhoid fever, dysentery and summer complaint, should be mixed with hot water, then covered with lime and left covered for an hour before being emptied in the sewer or buried where it will not drain into the well and cause an epidemic of typhoid later.

The Care of the Hands

Where a nurse is in a room, taking care of a person suffering from any communicable disease, there are two things that she must continually keep in mind. One is she must not put her hands in contact with any infective material unnecessarily, and the other is she must not let her soiled, unwashed hands touch her mouth, for they carry more disease germs than any other part of her. There is no better disinfectant than soap and water for ordinary use and she should take particular pains to see that her hands are scrubbed with soap and water, then dipped in a solution of lysol and water, before she leaves the sick room, or before she eats her meal.

Terminal Disinfection

When the quarantine is ended the patient should have a complete hot bath, a shampoo and get into a change of clothing. Dishes, utensils and bed linen should be washed with soap and water and treated as before mentioned. The room should be thoroughly house-cleaned. The floor and furniture should be thoroughly washed with hot water, soap and washing soda. The walls and windows should be wiped down with a cloth wrung out of soap and water and soda. The mattress should be left out of doors on a clothes-line for two or three days. Blankets and bedding require to be washed with soap and water and dried out of doors in the sun if possible.

Often it will be the part of wisdom and safety to burn the bedding and mattress.

BROWNHILL SUFFERS INJURY WEEK BEFORE 97TH BIRTHDAY

March came in like a lamb, but this weekend is more like a lion. All were very sorry to hear of the accident which occurred last Wednesday to J. Miller's mother, Mrs. Alexander, who fell down into the cellar and hurt her back, cut her arm and bruised her body badly. Mrs. Alexander is a wonderful old lady and will be 97 years of age this Thursday. Mrs. Alexander helps with the housework every day. She will be confined to her bed for some time now, but friends hope to see her making her daily visits to the post office soon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Green of Mount Albert spent Friday with their son, Mr. L. Green.

The community extends its sympathy to Mr. C. Core, who lost his mother last Saturday. Mrs. Core has been very sick for a long time, and has been staying with her son here. The funeral service will be held in Toronto from her home.

CHRISTADELPHIANS

Does it matter what we believe?
It is absolutely essential that we have faith in God's word because we were estranged from God, and he has asserted his prerogative and laid down the basis of our reconciliation. John 12: 48, Rom. 1: 16.

How can we have faith except we read and know what the scriptures teach. Rom. 10: 17.

Ignorance (lack of knowledge) alienates from life eternal. Eph. 2: 12; 4: 18.
